

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alexander, Krakow and Glick are featured seminar leaders in Maui at CAOC ‘College of Trial Arts’

AK+G’s three partners are seminar leaders at the Consumer Attorneys of California four-day “College of Trial Arts” beginning on Monday, November 30, 2015 at the Fairmont Kea Lani Hotel in Maui, Hawaii.

The partners are all leading seminars in the morning sessions on Wednesday, December 2.

- Gail Glick will speak about “Mediation Success – How to Maximize The Outcome”;
- Marvin Krakow will discuss “Managing the Difficult Plaintiff Client”; and
- Bernard Alexander will lead a session on “Trial Demonstratives in Employment Cases.”

In leading these seminars, the partners are continuing their activities for CAOC as part of their ongoing efforts to help members of the profession improve their expertise in providing services for the California public good.
